CORK & DUBLIN IN SEMI-FINAL SPECTACULAR

The pairing is set for the GAA All-Ireland senior hurling final and now it's the turn of the footballers to embark on the semi-final trail, starting this Sunday when Cork play Dublin in Croke Park (3.30pm).

Cork will be appearing in the senior semi-final for the sixth successive year (they won two, lost three and drew one of six appearances since 2005) while Dublin's last semi-final outing was in 2007 when they lost to Kerry. Dublin's last semi-final win was in 1995 when they beat Cork by a goal and went on to win the All-Ireland title.

Cork have had only one championship win over Dublin, which came in 1989 when they finished four points ahead in the semi-final, en route to winning the title. Cork's last All-Ireland win was in 1990, while Dublin last claimed 'Sam Maguire' in 1995.
