

GAA OVERSEAS UNITS

Contact Information Booklet

Is mór an onóir domsa cúpla focail a scríobh ar fhoilsiú an leabhar eolais thábhachtaigh seo.

As Chairman of the GAA's Overseas Committee, I am delighted to be involved, together with the very hard-working committee, in the production of this information booklet for our Overseas units.

Our committee felt that there was an information void with regard to contact names, numbers and email addresses for these units and it is expected that this booklet will fill that void. The booklet will be available both at home and overseas and will provide immediate contact information.

Since my appointment as Chairman of the Overseas Committee, I have been honoured to be surrounded by hard working and committed officials both in Ireland and abroad and I thank you all for the tremendous work that has been carried out in ensuring that this Booklet comes to fruition.

Le gach dea-ghuí,

Sheamus Ó hUilín

Chairman, Overseas Work Group

G.A.A. OVERSEAS WORK GROUP

Sheamus Howlin, Wexford, Chairman; Liam Bermingham, Kildare; Johnny Guirke, Co. Meath; John Lacey, London; Pat Toner, Louth; Geraldine Giles, Ladies Football Association; Sinead Ó Connor, Camogie Association and Áine Uí Ghibne, Secretary.

EUROPE

GENERAL INFORMATION

The European area has seen a steady increase since activities began just ten years ago in numbers of players and clubs over the past few years. 28 clubs are now active and others are being founded even in countries where we have yet to establish a presence.

Playing numbers are in excess of 500 footballers, 200 ladies footballers, 150 hurlers a growing number of camogie players and over 500 young indigenous people being introduced to Gaelic games across the continent.

However, the European Board (ECB) recognises the huge challenge of introducing our games to the 660 million citizens (excluding UK & Ireland).

That is why ambitious games and club development programmes are being developed and rolled out in many areas. The ECB's own structures have been evolving to meet this growth path and the annual convention now attracts over fifty delegates from affiliated clubs. In France, a national federation has been established. The ECB oversees all codes.

Competitions are organised on a 'blitz' basis once a month between March and November because of distance and expense involved. The football competitions are played across four regional leagues of four rounds and then in a pan-European Championship and Shield, with one round in each region. The hurling championship is played in four rounds and ladies football is played over seven rounds.

2008 will see the first camogie championship over three rounds. Some county teams also compete in certain All Ireland and Leinster Council (with whom the ECB is twinned) Junior Club Championships.

Due to the lack of GAA pitches, men's team are normally 11-a-side, whilst ladies are 7 or 9-a-side.

Teams accumulate ranking points in every round they play (which is a mini-league in itself) and the overall winners emerge based on counting a certain number of rounds within each competition. Clubs are allowed to combine in competitions with points being split as appropriate.

NEW YORK

GENERAL INFORMATION

Based in Gaelic Park at 240th and Broadway, the NY GAA Board covers the metropolitan area of New York, New Jersey and parts of Connecticut and Pennsylvania.

With over 40 clubs it is a vibrant unit which will celebrate its centenary in 2014. Long the centre of GAA activity in New York, historic Gaelic Park was upgraded in 2007 with the installation of a new surface and floodlights.

New York compete in the Connacht Football championship and while victory has been elusive, hope springs eternal.

The New York Senior Hurlers participated in the Ulster Hurling Championship and in 2006 played Antrim in a historic Ulster hurling final in Boston, the first ever provincial hurling final played outside of Ireland.
